Three Leave Board of Antioch High School; Two Candidates File

Roman Vos Resigns—Scott and Biel Will Not Seek Re-election

Roman Vos has resigned as a member of the Antioch Township High School board of education, leaving three vacancies to be filled at the election, April 13.

Vos said that the pressure of business and other outside activities did not give him the necessary time to devote to the school interests. He said that he is in full agreement with policies of the board. His term would expire in 1959.

The other two vacancies are the result of the decision of President Fred Scott and Secretary Louis Biel not to seek re-election.

President Scott has served on the board 15 years, his length of service having been but three years less than that of Walter Hills who was the veteran in service until two years ago.

Biel has served six years. Two persons have filed so far as candidates. They are Robert Denman, present chairman of the general committee on unification, and Millburn Cain, a former member of the board who didn't run for re-election two years ago.

Vos' letter of resignation will be read at the board meeting on March 13.

Major Re-engineering In Telephone Service Due to Village Growth

Illinois Bell Adding Much New Equipment and More Employees

The rapid growth of the Antioch area has triggered a major re-engineering of the local telephone system. Illinois Bell technicians are hard at work down in the central office building at 908 Victoria st. They are enlarging and modifying the switchboard equipment there to provide faster, more versatile service for telephone users here.

The conversion program includes: Addition of six switchboard positions, making a total of 21 positions to serve the Antioch area.

Addition of "terminal" equipment to enable the exchange to serve 600 more telephones.

Modifications of Antioch's switchboards from "four-to-six-type multiple." This change will permit each call to be "spread" more efficiently and make fast answering of calls easier for the operators, especially during periods of heavy traffic loads.

According to Chief Operator Mrs. Ruth Tidmarsh, the new exchange facilities will allow the company to put more operators on duty during busy hours. "And, of course, our capacity will increase by 600 telephones," she said.

The present force of operators handles an average of more than 11,800 calls per day through existing switchboards.

Illinois Bell Manager Richard N. Hawkins said that the number of telephones in Antioch has increased from 1,100 at the end of the war to 2,634 today. In 1946 there were 14 operating people in the Antioch office. In ten years this number has increased 236 per cent to 47 traffic department employees presently on the payroll.

Last fall, in order to enlarge and modify the Antioch central office, Illinois Bell constructed an addition to the telephone building. "The work now going on in the exchange is being done by Western Electric technicians," Hawkins said, "and they are trying to create the least disruption to service as is possible."

"Still," he said, "operating conditions temporarily are difficult in the exchange. I know that our friends in the area will continue to be patient while this temporary situation exists at the telephone switchboards. When it's all over with, probably next month, the result will be better telephone service for more people."

Early in May, according to Hawkins, the Telephone Company will hold an "open house" for all Antioch people. Residents will be able to see for themselves the extensive additions presently being made. "We sincerely hope that all Antioch people will be able to visit us in our expanded quarters at that time," he said.

Lake Catherine Man Burned, Home Guttled By Heater Explosion

John F. Schmidt, 80, of Petite and Lake sts., Felter's subdivision, Lake Catherine, was badly burned about the left hand and his hair was singed when a space heater exploded at his home at 9:15 a. m. Wednesday. Mrs. Schmidt was unhurt.

The explosion set fire to the house and before the Antioch Fire department could extinguish the flames they had destroyed two of the six rooms with a loss estimated by Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen at $3,000.

The Antioch Rescue Squad gave Schmidt first aid at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave A. Reitz and then took him to a physician.

The Schmidts they were taken to the home of a son, Robert Schmidt at Salem, Wis., where they will stay until their home is repaired.

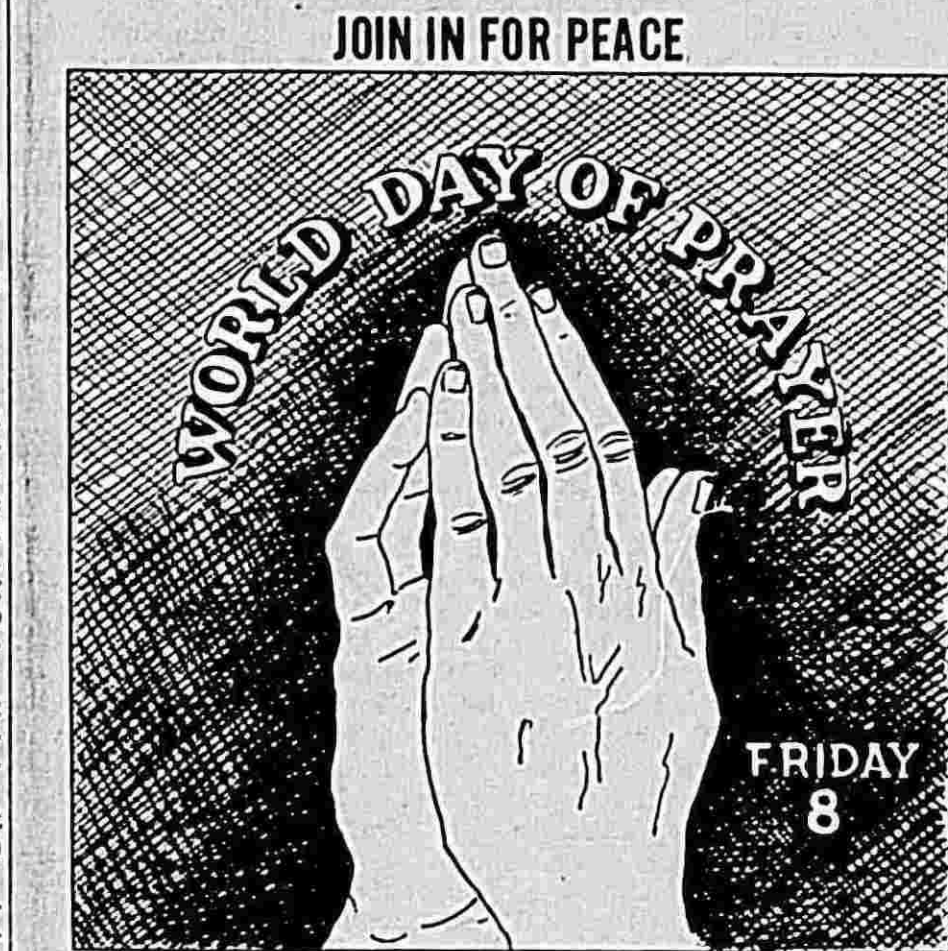

The fire department has received a half dozen calls in the last few days to extinguish grass fires.

Proclamations Call For Support of Two Humanitarian Groups

Mayor James McMillen's writing hand was busier than usual at Tuesday night's village board meeting.

He signed a proclamation calling for March 15-April 21 as Easter Seal Appeal time, and asked Antioch citizens to support this worthy cause.

Later he signed another proclamation setting March as Red Cross month and urged support of this campaign. Joining him in this proclamation was L. E. Murrie, township supervisor.

The Village Board approved April 26 and 27 as Forget-Me-Not days when the Disabled American War Veterans will solicit money.

May 14 will be the date for the United Cerebral Palsy Fund appeal.

Gerald Eckles Out On $7,500 Bond, To Await Trial in April

Gerald Eckles who has confessed to the shooting of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Smith of Channel Lake, was released on bond of $7,500 last Friday.

The release was without the knowledge of the Smiths who went to the Lake county jail to deliver his clothing and learned that he was released.

The father of Eckles came to the Smith home Friday and told Mrs. Smith he was planning to place his son in an institution for psychiatric treatment until the time of the trial in April. He made no mention then that the boy was being released.

Mr. Smith is in the Lake County sanitarium undergoing treatment. It was found that the bullet has lodged in his lung, and X-rays show that complication has arisen, according to Mrs. Smith. It was first thought that the bullet had lodged in the shoulder, but later it was discovered that the pellet had ricocheted into the lung. Mrs. Smith is still carrying the bullet that lodged in her back and cracked two ribs.

Eckles was indicted on charges of shooting with intent to kill.

Village Board Views Proposal of Industry To Locate in Antioch

The Village Board transacted very little business Tuesday night, devoting most of its time to discussion of the proposal of an unrevealed industry which wants to come to Antioch if it can obtain a building site.

The trustees will arrange a meeting with a representative of the company soon to discuss details.

Earl Horton has asked for village water and sewer so that he can subdivide and build on a lot on North ave. outside the village limits. It is probable that he may get water but not sewer service, but the water will enable him to get a county permit on a basis of a 70-foot width. Without water it must be 80 feet and his lots would not be that wide. The matter was left to the next meeting.

The board had an engineer's drawings of a sewer main that would go west from the Scout House toward the sewage disposal plant and relieve the present main that goes south, and which has been backing up into the Scout House basement.

Unidentified Company Wants Land Here to Start New Factory

An unidentified company wants to build a factory in Antioch if it can get land from the village in the industrial area east of the Soo Line tracks.

This was the information given the Antioch Chamber of Commerce by Bernard Osmond, chairman of the industrial committee, who said the company would build its factory to employ 75 persons with a payroll of about $750,000 which could reach one million dollars.

Plans for the Home Show will go forth under the chairmanship of W. V. Lahti, and the merchants have agreed to pay more for their booths so it will be unnecessary for them to charge admission.

Members of the organization were asked to refuse all solicitations not approved by the Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber will join the Better Business association.

Antioch Season Ends In Loss to Barrington 71-55, Regional Play

Sequoits Beat Ela-Vernon in First Round; Tie for Second Place

Antioch Township High School's basketball season came to an end last night with a loss to Barrington 71 to 55 in the regional tournament on the Barrington court.

A victory over Ela-Vernon Monday night in an overtime game 56 to 50 gave the Sequoits the opportunity to play in the second round with Barrington.

Antioch put up a good battle and was leading at the quarter 13 to 12 and at the half 30 to 28, but when Hanke and Huml, who were rebounding well, developed four personal fouls they were hindered in their aggressiveness and Barrington soon took the lead.

The score at the third quarter was 43 to 49 in favor of Barrington.

Wayne Herbst was high scorer for Antioch with 20 points while Art Hanke was second with 15. Bill Thorpe was high man for the Bronchos with 22 points and Chuck Berg second, with 15 points.

Dick Behrens played a strong defensive game as did Gudgeon and Huml, but Huml's scoring was not as heavy as usual.

Barrington is expected to win the tournament.

Antioch led all the way in the game with Ela-Vernon Monday until the last quarter when the Bears tied the score at 40 all, to send the game into overtime. In the overtime Antioch held Ela to four points while scoring 10.

Behrens' playing for Antioch was outstanding. Besides playing a good defensive game he scored seven field goals. The scoring was fairly evenly divided, showing a realm of teamwork.

In the last conference game Antioch dropped to a second-place tie with Palatine by losing to Grayslake here 60 to 59 last Friday.

Grayslake outplayed the Sequoits in the first half, leading 32 to 29 at the breathing space. In the third quarter Antioch came back strong and had a comfortable margin in a 52-44 score.

The fourth quarter was a tragedy for the Sequoits. They were held to seven points while the Rams scored 16. The local players were unable to stop Ritta who made 10 field goals and 4 free throws for a total of 24 points.

Art Hanke matched Ritta in field goals but missed his free throws. He was high man for Antioch with (continued on page 7)

"IF OUR MERCHANT MARINE HAD BEEN SCUTTLED"

The Suez Canal situation was the inspiration for an interesting and important little editorial in the Marine Engineering Log. It points out that, in the past, various members of the State Department have been far from friends toward the American-flag Merchant Marine. It then says: "We hope that some of the powers that be in that department realize the position the free world would be in if our Merchant Marine had been scuttled. . . ."

"One has to wonder how a United States without a merchant marine would have fared when the Suez Canal closing accentuated the shortage of ships. Would foreign-flag vessels have been available to us—and if so, at what rates? Can the growing military and foreign-aid commitments of this country be guaranteed without American ships?"

"If the growing number of problems that face our government are formidable, visualize a United States without a means to carry out its commitments and support military bases overseas."

The Suez Canal matter, along with other troubles in the Middle East, has served to underline a big fact. We need a U. S.-flag merchant marine to handle our huge and expanding volume of international trade. We also need it to meet the demands imposed by emergencies—in a world in which new emergencies can be expected at any time.

A Local Business

Ever since the federal minimum wage law came into being, certain service enterprises, retailing among them, have been exempted. Periodically efforts have been made to extend the law to retailing, and that is the case again this year.

The reasons for the retail exemption are sound, and nothing has happened to change the situation. For one thing, retailing is a local business, governed by local needs and conditions—including local living costs. It is obvious that a blanket law, covering the great cities and the little towns indiscriminately, cannot be just to all.

For another thing, retailing is a business which can provide jobs and training for marginal workers whose value is very small. If a high federal minimum wage is imposed by law, retailers will have no choice—they will pare that kind of employment to the bone. Then beginners will look in vain for the jobs which would help prepare them for future positions requiring skills and offering good pay.

It has been proposed that the minimum wage law be extended to cover only the larger retailers, such as the chains. But this begs the issue. For, to repeat, retailing is a 100 per cent local business—and an outlet of the biggest chain must still compete on the local level, and adapt its operations to local conditions in every respect.

Congress, recognizing such facts as these, has always refused to eliminate the retail exemption. In that, it has set an excellent precedent for the present and future.

Grassroots Opinion

RIVERTON, WYO., RANGER: "The complex American economy enters a new year with inflation still a national problem."

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., INDUSTRIAL PRESS: "As this newspaper has often pointed out the government must assume the lead in stopping inflation by less and less government spending."

MILBANK, S. D., HERALD ADVANCE: "A recent issue of AFL-CIO News proudly boasts of the effectiveness of a 'Committee on Struck Goods' . . . Every American who feels as we do that a man has a right to work regardless of union membership or non-membership—and who opposes the use of boycotts in labor disputes—should join in protesting this blatant mis-use of Big Labor's monopoly powers."

CORVALLIS, ORE., GAZETTE-TIMES: "Under the British system . . . the doctor's services are not 'free' in any sense of the word because while the people may not pay for them directly, they do pay for them in taxes which probably makes the cost even higher. Furthermore, the production line service which the British doctors must use to get as many patients as possible though the mill has not served to make the care as scientific for the individual as it should be."

AZTEC, N. M., INDEPENDENT-REVIEW: "Maybe if we ignored the civilized people of the earth like we do the uncivilized people we would have no more trouble with the civilized than we do with the uncivilized."

HARMONY, MINN., NEWS: "Hear about the careless hunter who climbed through a fence with his gun cocked? The Lena (Ill.), Star reports he is survived by his wife, three children and a pheasant."

Revenue Office Urges Taxpayers to Ask Their Questions by Phone

Use of your telephone to get income tax help was urged today by H. Alan Long, Chicago's District Director of the Internal Revenue Service. He promised quick and accurate answers to phone calls directed to his offices.

"Right now, before the filing season nears the pressure of the fine weeks, we can help most taxpayers with the one or two problems they've met while working on their returns," Mr. Long said. "We have assigned personnel to give this type of assistance Mondays through Fridays from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. in Chicago, call Dearborn 2-4500. People who live outside Chicago should call the revenue office nearest their home or place of business.

"Of course, we ask that taxpayers with questions have their returns, their records and their notations before them, and the facts in mind when they call. Our agents can then answer their questions and help solve the problems. Telephone help is usually preferable to that given in our offices. It's individual, it's free from interruption and distraction, and it helps both the taxpayer and the service."

Mrs. Myrtle Weismantel, who was confined to bed under doctor's orders for several days, is now recuperating nicely and is able to be up and around. She wishes to thank all those who remembered her in her illness.

The Women's Auxiliary Board will meet at the home of El Russ Friday, March 8, at 8:15.

Mrs. Myra Garlike is recuperating at home after undergoing surgery in Chicago recently, and is doing very well.

The Improvement Association "Hoe Down" February 23 at the V. F. W. hall in Lake Villa was enjoyed by those who attended. The square dances were, at first confusing, but with practice a good time was had by all.

The Red Cross drive is now on, and your canvassers would appreciate your cooperation when they ring your bell for contributions.

For another thing, retailing is a business which can provide jobs and training for marginal workers whose value is very small. If a high federal minimum wage is imposed by law, retailers will have no choice—they will pare that kind of employment to the bone. Then beginners will look in vain for the jobs which would help prepare them for future positions requiring skills and offering good pay.

It has been proposed that the minimum wage law be extended to cover only the larger retailers, such as the chains. But this begs the issue. For, to repeat, retailing is a 100 per cent local business—and an outlet of the biggest chain must still compete on the local level, and adapt its operations to local conditions in every respect.

Congress, recognizing such facts as these, has always refused to eliminate the retail exemption. In that, it has set an excellent precedent for the present and future.

Easter Seal Campaign to Help Crippled Children

Mrs. Sybil Steiskal, of Rothers Lane, Antioch, will head the 1957 Easter Seal campaign in Antioch to help crippled children. Judge L. Eric Carey, general chairman of the campaign in Lake county, announced.

Named at a meeting of Lake County Crippled Children's Aid Association, Mrs. Steiskal will spearhead the annual appeal as campaign chairman, leading efforts to maintain and promote greater services for the crippled.

"Our goal has been set," Mrs. Steiskal said. "Some $25,000 will be needed in Lake county if crippled children are to receive the care necessary for their rehabilitation."

The 1957 appeal is scheduled March 15 to April 21.

Mrs. Steiskal, who has been active in many community affairs in Antioch, is serving her first year as chairman of the Easter Seal campaign in Antioch. She has reorganized and added to the Easter Seal program in Antioch this year.

The Antioch chairman announced that senior Girl Scouts of the Grass Lake unit will participate in the appeal this year by helping to stuff and attach stickers to some 2,000 envelopes.

Approximately 80 per cent of the funds raised during the annual Easter Seal campaign finances services within Lake county. The remainder goes to help support a national program of service, education and research.

Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt to Speak
Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt will discuss, "Is America Facing World Leadership?" March 14 at 8:30 p. m. at the Zion Auditorium, Zion, Ill. This is the closing lecture of the Am Echod Forum Series.

Although tickets to the Forum series were sold on a seasonal basis, individual tickets are being offered to hear Eleanor Roosevelt. They are obtainable at the door or from Mrs. Maurice Meyer, Majestic 3-0832, Waukegan.

Chicago Retail Food Markets March 4-9

Chicago—Homemakers will find fish products crowding the value parade this first week of Lent. Pork also claims a share of consumer attention with return of slightly lower prices for some fresh cuts that become more competitive to still dominant and continuing beef values.

The University of Illinois consumer service outlook-records indicate:

Haddock, cod, shad, smelt, and striped bass are usually most abundant at this season, and should provide high protein retail food values. They provide the following standard servings—per pound—served whole, 1; dressed, 2; steaks, 3; fillet, 3 and canned, 5.

Shrimp are in limited supply and storage stocks are lower as a result of rough winter weather. At the same time, MaReh is an oyster month. Since soup and stew packers have been gobbling up supplies on the west coast, supply limits of fresh, frozen and canned may boost prices.

Canned packs of tuna, salmon and mackerel are in heavy supply and continue to provide top values. Sardines are in shorter supply.

Fish sticks and semi-prepared frozen fish dinners are scheduled for promotion attention and deserve consumer value ratings.

Fresh fruit and vegetables remain relatively unchanged despite poor harvesting weather. Egg prices slip still lower. And the predicted coffee declines are realized in many stores this week.

The consensus price picture for the week ending March 9 looks like this:

Beef—All classes remain unchanged from last week, with one exception, round bone chuck roast off 4 to 6c. Steaks show: sirloin 69-70c; porterhouse 79-89c; round (heel cut) 49-55c; round (center cut) 55-59c. Roasts: blade cut 29-35c; round bone 45-49c; standing rib 49-59c; rump 70-80c (with some stores featuring rump roast as low as 69c).

Pork—A falling market just about wiped out last week's increases on fresh items, and some feature prices might be as much as 4c under the low quote for such popular cuts as end chops and rib end roasts 33-39c; center chops 69-75c; fresh Boston's 39-49c; smoked whole ham 53-55c; picnic 35-39c; smoked Boston's 59-69c; top bacon 59-67c; second bacon 49-57c.

Poultry—Stewing hens are 35c; fryers slightly higher at 39c and turkey 45c.

Dairy—Grade A large white eggs quote 43c and extra large at 49c. Butter continues low, starting at 69c lb. for good. Cheese reflects no market change, starting at 49c for Swiss and 50c for Cheddar.

Fish—Frozen fillet of flounder and sole price as low as 59c (10 oz. pkg); halibut steaks 49c lb.; ocean perch 35c lb. Chunk style tuna is a low of 29c (7 oz. can) and pink salmon 50c (16 oz. can).

Produce—Weather factors limit supplies and maintain high prices for celery, carrots, snap beans, spinach, green onions, peppers and cabbage. Lower prices are signalled for cauliflower and cucumbers. Lettuce is in good supply from California and Arizona, and cheap. Reasonably priced and high quality prevail for sweetcorn, radishes, tomatoes, broccoli and new potatoes. Citrus tops the fruit values, but grapefruit turns up in prices as supplies drop.

Groceries—Coffee drops in price. Manufacturers "deals" are in enough volume to create a lower market for shortening and cooking oils. Canned corn, sauerkraut and frozen spinach costs are reported lower. Expect promotion prices to break to consumer advantage for heavy pack frozen strawberries.

Lillian McNeil Weds
Harry Conrad Jr. in Candlelight Service

In a candlelight ceremony Feb. 23 at the Community Methodist church of Lake Villa, Miss Lillian McNeil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McNeil of Lake Villa, became the bride of Harry Conrad Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conrad of Antioch. The Rev. Gerald B. Robinson officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace and tulle over satin, styled with a jeweled neckline, fitted bodice, and long tapered sleeves. The floor length, bouffant skirt featured a lace torso, shadow ruffles, and jeweled applique. Her crystal and rhinestone half crown held her fingertip silk illusion veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of lilies of the valley and gladioli.

Maid of honor was Miss Carol Hanson, and the bridesmaids were Miss Christine McNeil and Miss Donna Dittmer. Bridal attendants wore street length, full skirted, empire waisted chiffon gowns, in contrasting shades of light and dark green, and they carried nosegay bouquets of white carnations accented with red roses and silver streamers.

Jack Pregrener served as best man to the bridegroom, and ushers were Raymond Traves, Jr., and Fred Dittmer, Jr. A reception following the ceremony was held at Pregrener's Resort. The couple are now at home at 487 Lake St., Antioch.

Karen Lightsey Was Beautiful Queen at Winter Skating Formal

The winter formal skating party held at Rollin' Wheels Roller Rink, Twin Lakes, Wis., on Sunday evening, Feb. 24 was beautiful and a grand success.

Karen Lightsey of Antioch having been selected by popular vote, was a lovely and gracious queen. She wore a beautiful white net cocktail length gown, which billowed forth with ruffles, and on the ties of her skates were white net pompons sparkling with star dust.

She wore an orchid, which was presented to her by her chosen king, Jerry Burnett of Lake Villa.

The king and queen's court comprised Price, Lake Geneva; Juanita Schwartz, Silver Lake; Joyce Moorehouse, Pell Lake; and Carol Phipps of Twin Lakes. They were all beautiful in their pastel shaded gowns, each young lady wearing a lovely corsage given her by her chosen knight—Dick Corbett, Burlington; Armond Nolan, Silver Lake; James Evans, Delavan; Carter Vogt, Burlington; and Irwin Rozelle, Twin Lakes.

The highlight of the evening was the grand march and the crowning of the king and queen which was done by Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, proprietors of Rollin' Wheels. The king's crown was royal blue velvet, the queen's tiara of brilliants and pearls.

The throne and dais were decorated in gold and star dust with a trellis background of red roses. The king's and queen's chairs of carved walnut and needlepoint added to the regal splendor of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn presented the queen a dozen red roses and a golden queen's coach to be used as a perfume tray. The king received a gold world globe which is a cigarette container. The maids of the court each received a lace formal handkerchief and a red rose. The knights received a black hand painted decorated piggy bank on which was inscribed "For my new car."

Many parents, relatives and friends visited the rink as spectators.

Union Monopoly Can Be Dangerous

A merger of two leading automobile manufacturers, or steel producers, or oil companies would raise a hue and cry that would be heard around the world. And rightly so because it would spell monopoly. Fortunately we have laws which make such an action impossible and unthinkable.

But the other side of the coin tells a vastly different story. There is a monopoly in full swing in this country — more deadly than any business combine you can think of — and yet nothing is done, or can be done because the hands of the law are tied.

The National Association of Manufacturers has just made public the results of a year long survey into the dangers of labor monopoly conducted under the direction of Leo Wolman of Columbia University. Its findings makes the hair of any fair-minded American curl at the roots.

Acting under the cloak of legislative immunity, giant labor organizations have been allowed to grow and combine to put them in a position where the demands of a few men could actually bring this nation's industrial machine to a standstill. Such a situation is bad for business, it's bad for the country, it's bad for working men and women everywhere—it's even bad for the labor movement in general.

America is sold on the idea that monopoly—any kind of monopoly—is bad. Now it's up to Congress to translate this feeling into equitable law. NAM has performed a valuable service to the nation in bringing this to the people's attention before it is too late.

Give Your Car a Workout Occasionally

Your car was built to be driven, says the Chicago Motor Club.

So, if you want good performance from your car, drive it.

Just as any person needs a certain amount of exercise to keep in good physical condition, a car should get more of a workout than the usual day-to-day driving. Many cars are driven mostly to and from work or on short shopping trips, or occasionally to a friend's house for a social evening.

Service experts of the Motor Club advise both city and suburban residents to head for the open highway occasionally and exercise their cars. You can do this without exceeding normal highway speeds. It isn't speed the car needs—it's a reasonable workout to keep it in good running condition.

A breezing run at open highway speeds tends to improve the efficiency of the battery, remove carbon from spark plugs and free sticky valves—all in a drive for only a reasonable distance.

The operation of your car won't be improved by leaving it in the garage, or parked in front of your house. So give it some exercise once in a while.

At birth, the average human heart beats 140 times per minute.

Reign at Skating Festival

Karen Lightsey of Antioch and Jerry Burnett of Lake Villa reigned as queen and king recently at the Winter Skating festival at the Rollin' Wheels rink at Twin Lakes. They skated in these costumes, accompanied by a court of attendants.

Savings Bonds Purchases For Lake County in Jan.

Lake County residents purchased a total of $619,059 in Series E and H United States Savings Bonds in January 1957, according to figures received from the Treasury Department by James E. Brown of Waukegan and Philip L. Speidel of Lake Forest, Volunteer Savings Bonds County Co-chairmen.

Walter J. Lozier, acting State Director of the Treasury Department's U. S. Savings Bonds Division for Illinois, announced that sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds in the state totaled $44,887,836, last month, showing a decline of 17.1% from sales in January 1956. Illinois sales accounted for 9.6% of national sales of $45,225,000.

The 1957 quota for Illinois has been set at $444,000,000, Lozier reported, and in January 10.1% of the quota has been attained.

The national quota for the year is $5,000,000,000.

Chest X-Rays for School Personnel

Of 37,751 Illinois teachers and other school personnel who were given chest X-ray examinations by mobile units of the state Department of public health during the first six months of last year, 357 persons were found to have signs of tuberculosis, either active or inactive.

This result is outlined in a report just released by Dr. Roland R. Cross, state health director.

These X-ray examinations also revealed 302 cardiac conditions, 16 possible tumors of the chest and 758 instances of abnormal pathology believed to have been caused by infections other than tuberculosis, the report says.

HOW DOES IT FEEL TO PLAN FOR A COFFIN?

40,000 heartbroken families will know—because of traffic accidents this year, unless all of us do something about it!

Here's How You Can Help Stop Traffic Deaths Now

1. Drive safely and sensibly yourself. Keep alert. Watch traffic and pedestrians. Observe speed limits and warning signs. Where drivers are careful and obey the law, deaths go DOWN!
2. Insist on strict enforcement of all traffic laws in your community. Traffic regulations work for you, not against you. Wherever traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

Lakeside Girl Scout Council Grows From One Hundred to 1,112 Members in 10 Years

When the Lakeside council of Girl Scouts of America was started in 1947, there were eight troops and 100 registered scouts.

Today, on the eve of Girl Scout week there are 54 troops with 1,112 members.

Representatives from Grayslake, Round Lake, Long Lake, Gages Lake, Antioch, and Lake Villa met and unanimously agreed to form a council back in 1947.

On July 7, 1948 the council was granted its first charter, and in November of the same year, the first official Lakeside Council meeting was held, then boasting a membership of 200 Scouts for 23 troops.

Growth has been steadily increasing each year since, and today, there are 1,112 girls, composing 54 troops, and 260 registered men and women volunteers. Of the more than 1,000 girls, 702 are Brownies, 389 are Intermediates, and 21 are Senior, or Junior High, Scouts. Communities contributing to this membership are Grayslake, Gages Lake, Lake Villa, Venetian Village, Grass Lake, Channel Lake, Antioch, Fox Lake, Ingleside, Long Lake, and the Round Lake area.

Mariner Troop Forming

Soon, the Lakeside Council will have its first Mariner troop. Members of Junior High troop No. 32 of Lake Villa are working now to complete their basic requirements. They have also joined the Ground Observer Corps as part of their community service under the five-point program.

This energetic sea-scouting troop needs a person or persons, to act as their sponsor. Anyone interested may contact their leader, Mrs. James Rathbone, Elliot 6-3514.

The Council has had to cope with many problems in the past, and always managed to solve them expertly, thanks to its loyal members, and the generous help of its communities. However, it is faced now with a greater problem than any in the past, that of securing more men and women volunteers to meet the tremendous growth of girl membership.

The full and varied program of scouting offers a job for everyone. Men are needed as sponsors, troop committee members, consultants, program advisers, trainers, and public relations officers. Women will enjoy troop leadership, or work on committees such as camping, training, public relations, programming, or troop sponsorship, and also as program consultants, camp counselors, and board members.

If any of these fields appeals to you, call or write Mrs. Arthur A. Storch, Lakeside Council president, Rt. 1, Lake Villa, Ill., or Elliot 6-2161.

Health Talk

How Old Are You?

How does your physiologic age compare with your chronologic years? If you have maintained good physical and mental health, your physiologic age should not necessarily add up to the number of birthdays you can count. Do you dread growing old? Too bad if you do, because, like the weather, there is nothing you can do about it physically, the Educational Committee of the Illinois State Medical Society observes in Health Talk.

Mentally, there is much that you can do. You can prepare yourself for the years that have been added to your life span through the modern advances of medicine.

In 1850 your average life span was 40—today it is almost 70 years. Presently most people face retirement at age 65, a compulsory development of industry. Medically, this is not sound, since many people of this group are still capable of working, productively and efficiently.

To a person who has devoted a great part of energy to his job, premature retirement is often like a death certificate. A feeling of usefulness and a purpose in living are extremely important to every man and woman.

If, however, you are one of those to whom the rule applies, get ready for it. Plan new things. Develop a hobby that will keep you interested mentally and physically. Generally older people are thought unable to learn new things. This is not true. Prove the statement wrong by broadening your interests. Keep yourself flexible in your thinking.

Disprove the popular notion, that all people up in years are cross and self-centered. Certainly older men and women are not cut to one pattern any more than men and women in any other age group. Indeed how many persons do you know in the middle-age or younger aged bracket whose dispositions and emotional make-up are so hypocritical that their best foot forward is only evident when they are getting their own way?

Keep yourself active. This is another step in the right direction to prepare for your advancing years. Get yourself a part-time job if need be. Take part in church and club activities. Keep yourself busy. Use the proverbial rocking chair occasionally if you will, but don't plan to rock the rest of your life away with thoughts of what used to be.

Remember that life can be fascinating or meaningless at any age. If life is interesting there is always something to live for. It is when one feels lonely and useless that life loses its meaning.

As the years go by, physiologic changes take place in the human body. The skin becomes wrinkled. Walking is slower—there is less spring to the step, and the body becomes susceptible to the chronic illnesses that beset the older age population. These are natural changes which must be accepted.

But the way you accept them is what counts. Just as modern science has added years to your life, you are the one who can add life to your years.

Income Tax Help

Need some help filling out your income tax return?

WTW-Channel 11 and the Internal Revenue Department will come to your aid with a series of four programs, 9:30-10 p. m. on Tuesdays, beginning March 5.

Representatives of the Revenue Department will explain the complexities of filing a return.

The first show, "Project 1040-A," will be devoted to the simplest of these forms. Special guest will be H. Allen Long, District Director of the department.

In the period from 1956 through 1960 the bituminous coal industry will spend around $1.5 billion in expansion of production and modernization and mechanization of its operations, according to a survey of Keystone Coal Buyers Manual.

Guess who needs an automatic Dryer—and why should it be Electric?

The Electric dryer is fully automatic, fume-free, fast and thrifty!

Poor father! If they had an electric dryer he'd have a dozen clean, dry diapers by now. Baby-soft, clean-smelling—the way they always dry in an electric.

Nearest thing there is to sunshine. Electric heat is clean, dry, radiant heat. Fume-free. So everything you dry electrically comes out smelling sweet as clover.

Electric dryers are all fully automatic, and just 6¢ worth of electricity will dry a big load.

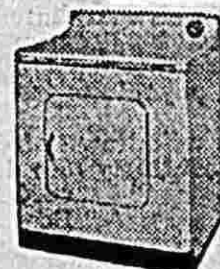

Take a look at the new electric dryers soon. You'll notice that all the "no-vent" dryers are electric. (So your laundry area stays clean, dry and comfortable.) Are you listening, father?

Big Saving—ask your dealer about our Share-the-Cost Installation Plan. It's the low-cost way to get the modern 100-amp home wiring you need for today's electric living appliances.

If you own an electric range, you save up to $25 on a new dryer! In fact if you have any 240-volt appliance your home probably has modern wiring already. This means the complete, installed price of your new electric dryer will be less than any other kind.

Poliomyelitis Can Virtually Be Wiped Out in 1957

Through the cooperative efforts of public health agencies, the polio vaccine manufacturers, medical science and the public, crippling paralytic poliomyelitis can be virtually wiped out in 1957, reports the Health News Institute.

The potential conquest of polio, hailed as one of the outstanding miracles in the field of modern health progress, wraps up 19 years of effort by medical scientists, supported by the American people through the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and the five manufacturers of Salk polio vaccine. These companies have produced more than 150,000,000 doses of the vaccine, of which some 135,000,000 doses have been released by the federal government by the beginning of February, 1957.

By the end of 1956 some 45,000,000 Americans had received at least one shot of vaccine, compared with 10,000,000 children of first and second grade age who had received the protection in 1955. While polio attacked more than 15,000 persons in the United States in 1956, this was a 47 per cent decrease from 1955 and a 58 per cent decrease from the 1951-54 average. Nevertheless, a great step-up in vaccinations is imperative if polio is to be considered conquered.

The supply of vaccine on hand and in production at the beginning of 1957 is considered by the Polio Foundation to be adequate "practically to wipe out paralytic polio if every American up to 35 years received the vaccine's full protection. That means a three-shot series for a total of 97,000,000 men, women and children up to age 35, of whom 53,000,000 have yet to receive their first shots."

That is a large "if," for only 7,000,000 persons in this country have completed the full three-shot course of inoculations.

At the beginning of the "polio year" in 1956, production was running so effectively that the Health News Institute was able to announce that the five manufacturers then making Salk vaccine would produce enough to provide at least two doses each for over 80,000,000 American children up to 19 years of age and expectant mothers before the end of the year. The manufacturers are Eli Lilly & Company and Pittman-Moore Company, Indianapolis; Parke, Davis Company, Detroit; Merck, Sharp & Dohme Division of Merck & Co., Inc., and Wyeth Laboratories, both of Philadelphia.

The companies exceeded their announced schedules. By August supplies were so plentiful that the government discontinued controls over distribution, and by November it had raised the age requirement from 19 years to all under 40 years of age.

Such was the abundance of Salk vaccine at year's end that public health agencies and the medical profession cooperatively initiated broader programs to stimulate inoculations of all persons to the age of 40.

Leading off this effort, Dr. Leona Baumgartner, Commissioner of Health for the City of New York, instituted a city-wide program in conjunction with the five medical societies of the City for mass inoculations, family group inoculations, and urged all eligible persons to see their family doctor for individual immunization.

The New York blueprint has been adopted by many other state and municipal health groups in cooperation with their local medical societies in various parts of the country. The American Medical Association is sponsoring a nationwide campaign for polio inoculations.

On December 28, 1956, the National Office of Vital Statistics of the U. S. Public Health Service announced that poliomyelitis in the 1956 calendar year had fallen to 15,295 reported cases from the 1955 calendar year level of 29,151, a 47.5 per cent reduction. Of these, the number of paralytic polio cases fell from 10,578 in 1955 to 6,650 in 1956; the remainder of the cases were non-paralytic or unspecified.

Thus had the United States come nearer final victory over paralytic polio. But Basil O'Connor of the NFIP warned, "Unless people begin the series of shots at once it is certain paralytic polio will again claim many victims in 1957."

New Hearing Aids

Arcade Optical Co., 25 S. Genesee st., Waukegan, will be the sole distributor of Maico Hearing Aids in that city, it was announced today by Paul Yamber, owner of the company.

Maico, one of the leaders in hearing aid equipment, with home offices in Minneapolis, will introduce seven models of hearing aids there. Prices on the aids range from $65 to about $300 for their undetectable hearing aid glasses.

Alvin Schwartz, who will be the Maico representative there, said that the hearing aid glasses could be adapted to any style of spectacle frames the purchaser desired. Also new in hearing aids is the Maico five transistor super power set. It is the first set of such power on the market, he said.

Schwartz will be available during the regular office hours of the Arcade Optical Co. to help customers with hearing problems.

Civic League, Farmers Want Collection of All Personal Tax in 1957

"Increased revenues for Lake County school districts and other taxing bodies may be realized in the near future, says V. Joseph Hultman, Lake County Civic League president. "The League and the Lake County Farm Bureau are renewing their efforts to seek collection of personal tax delinquencies through the County Treasurer's and State's Attorney's offices. We are gratified that those elected county officials have indicated their willingness to cooperate in the collection of delinquent personal taxes within the letter of the law."

Hultman's statement came after a recent conference of representatives of the two county-wide civic groups with Thomas Moran, state's attorney, and Guy Lunn, county treasurer. Representing the Civic League at the meeting were Hultman, Mayor Lee Fleming of Zion, and Bruce Trester, executive secretary. The Lake County Farm Bureau was represented by Stanley Rouse of Mundelein, vice president, and Ronald Paddock of Wauconda Township.

"Delinquent personal taxes are one of Lake County's pressing problems," stated Rouse. "Since most of the county's taxpayers pay their personal property taxes, everybody should be made to pay. The taxpayer who meets his responsibility should not be penalized by having to pay more than his share. Our two organizations feel that we have the backing of all responsible taxpayers. Even though the personal property tax is unpopular, the law is in force, and an effort should be made to collect all delinquencies, giving our taxing bodies added revenue to meet their inflationary costs."

County Treasurer Guy Lunn showed the group two checks submitted to his office by justices of the peace. The checks were a result of action taken by the justices of the peace in collecting delinquent 1953 personal property taxes in Zion and Cuba townships. "We hope to move this program on into several other townships in the near future," was Lunn's comment.

Noting that Zion township's districts who are hard pressed would largely benefit from the justice of the peace's action, Mayor Fleming of Zion urged further cooperative action by the state's attorney's office and the board of supervisors with the county treasurer "to get the job done." Mayor Fleming reviewed the Farm Bureau and Civic League's previous efforts to seek payment through the statutes and urged that delinquent personal taxes be made accumulative on the tax bills. Only current personal taxes are presented in the yearly tax bill in Lake County. Adding delinquent tax amounts to the tax bill would make the taxpayer aware of his obligation and it would facilitate the collection of back taxes by the county treasurer.

Mr. Moran, the state's attorney expressed the belief that personal property taxes should be paid. He stated that he was in the process of formulating a policy for collection of delinquent personal taxes and that he welcomed the interest of civic groups in forming this policy. "My office stands ready to aid the people of Lake county in all petitions presented in the public interest," he commented.

As a result of the meeting, the Civic League and Farm Bureau leaders pledged the support of their organizations to aid the county officials. "We will be happy to aid action taken to cause the collection of delinquent personal property taxes," said Hultman. "We feel that action is seriously needed and county officials should move rapidly toward such a goal."

Farm Bureau Agency Gets State Trophy For Insurance Sales

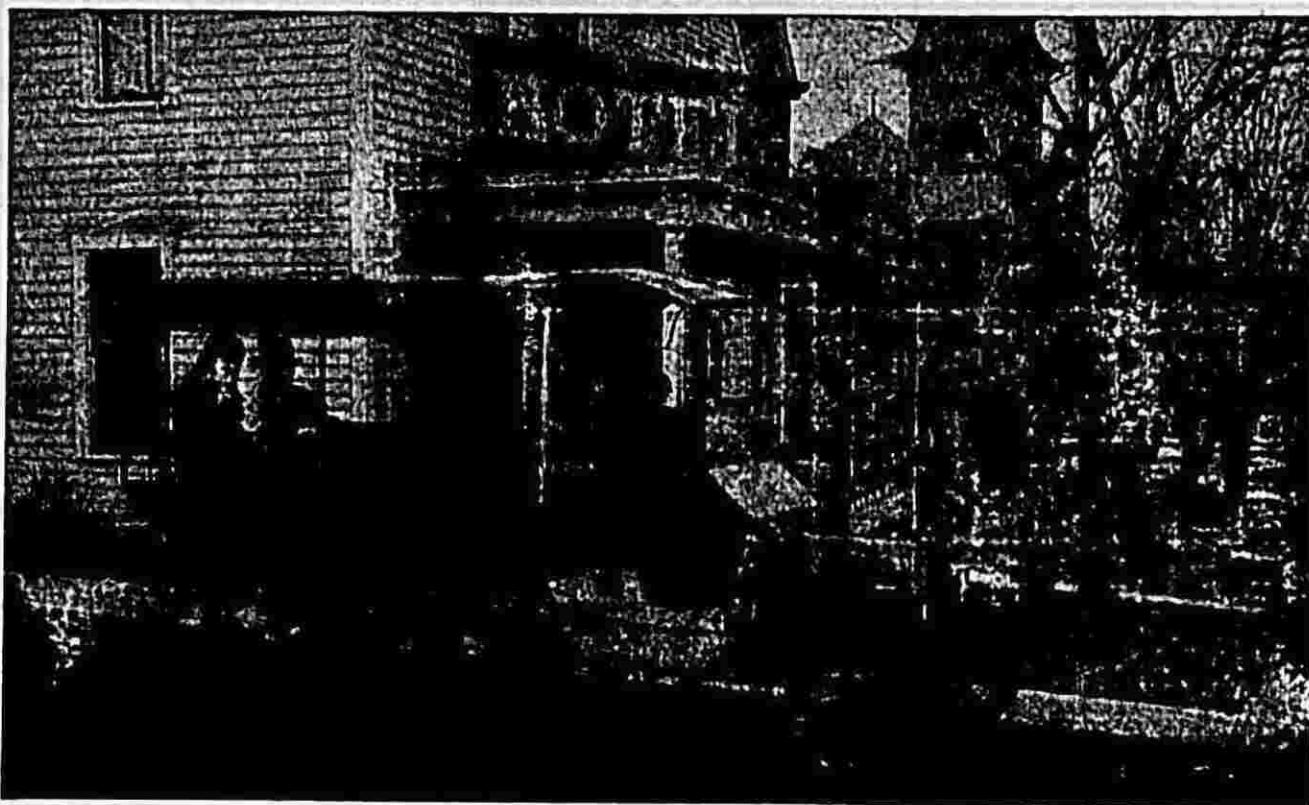

Grayslake — Michael Zimmer, president of the Lake County Farm Bureau, announced today that the Lake County IAA Insurance Service agency force received state-wide recognition for service and sales during the first six weeks of 1957.

Zimmer said the agency was honored Feb. 26 at the IAA Insurance Service round-up in Chicago, and was presented an engraved trophy in recognition of its outstanding achievement.

During the first six weeks of 1957, the Lake County agency force contacted 1,078 members, wrote $210,000 of life insurance with 64 individual sales of life insurance and serviced the policies of 125 members.

During the same period, the agency force also had 130 sales of Country Mutual policies and serviced 560 Country Mutual policyholders. The Lake County Farm Bureau president said that the concerted efforts of IAA Insurance Service agencies throughout the state during the six-week period resulted in a total of 49,729 contacts with members, $17,266,945 life insurance written, 4,112 individual policies and 6,076 service calls. The total state-wide effort also resulted in 18,369 service calls and 8,602 sales of Country Mutual Insurance policies.

This Was the Bus Service Back in 1916 in Antioch

The late Archie Maplethorpe is shown at the wheel of his motorized bus during the spring of 1916. Maplethorpe took the cab of his horse-drawn bus and put it on a lengthened 1914 Ford chassis in making the bus. Immediately back of the driver is Arthur Edgar, owner of the hotel, now known as the Mortenson Hotel, and farther back are Bert Grice and Bill Davis. The Methodist church and the house next to it are shown in the background. The bus was used to haul people to and from the trains to the hotel and to the resorts.

Youth Commission Report
An increase of 22.3 per cent in juvenile commitments to the Illinois Youth Commission and circuit court convictions of young law-breakers occurred last year as compared to 1955. An aggregate of 1,072 boys and 265 girls was put into the care of the commission by family and county courts, while 63 boys and three girls were convicted of criminal charges by circuit courts. Illinois Industrial School for Boys at Sheridan, planned for 280 occupants, held 362 at the close of the year, and 138 boys were under supervision in forestry camps. The State Training School for Boys at St. Charles, with normal capacity of 600, had 754 boys at one period last year.

While the number of returned parole violators rose slightly last year, reaching 19 per cent, Illinois still has one of the best records among states as regards the number of youths who fail to adjust themselves after correctional training, the report says.

Treatment for Mentally Ill
Illinois one of only 13 states which provide specialized treatment for mentally ill and emotionally disturbed children.

This status is disclosed by a survey made by a committee of the state Department of Public Welfare. In reporting its findings the committee pointed out that present Illinois facilities are by no means sufficient to care for all the children in the state who need this kind of treatment.

The department's two treatment centers, one for psychotic children (the Grace Abbott Children's Center of Peoria State Hospital) and one for severely emotionally disturbed children (the William Healy School of the Institute for Juvenile Research in Chicago) have a combined capacity for 84 youngsters.

Governor William G. Stratton commended the welfare department for its plan to improve and enlarge facilities for this specialized service.
